May 2022	31.7%	50.1%

2022 Motivation to Vote at 9.0/ Democratic Base at 9.5 – 2020 Levels

*   Voters were asked on a scale of one to ten, how motivated they were to vote in the November 2022 election for Governor. Voters motivation remains strong at 9.0 on a 10.0-point scale – consistent with December 2021 levels.

Strong Democratic motivation has increased to 9.5 from 9.3 in December 2021.   Strong Republican motivation has seen a slight decline from 9.4 to a 9.2.

*   The chart below compares motivation to vote by party affiliation dating back for ten years.   Base voters on both sides are motivated at levels comparable to the 2018 and 2020 elections.   We continue to see 'sagging' in motivation numbers among Independent voters.

Party Affiliation	Oct 12	Oct 14	Oct 16	Oct 18	Jan 20	Dec 21	May 22
Strong Democratic	8.5	7.0	6.7	9.6	9.7	9.3	9.5
Lean Democratic	7.4	6.4	4.7	9.5	9.6	8.7	8.7
Independent	6.6	5.9	5.6	8.9	9.1	8.8	8.4
Lean Republican	8.3	6.2	6.2	9.2	9.3	8.9	9.2
Strong Republican	8.4	6.9	6.5	9.5	9.6	9.4	9.2

72.8% Say Economy on Wrong Track Due to Inflation/ Roe v Wade Enters Top Concerns

* By a margin of 19.1%-72.8%, voters believe the economy is on the wrong track. Every demographic group – including Strong Democratic voters – believe the economy is on the wrong track.

* When voters were asked in an open-ended question what the most important issue was facing Michigan, inflation drives the top concerns in Michigan – by a long shot. But the economic concern is inflation – not jobs. Second on the list is roads/infrastructure. And Abortion makes a first time showing at number three – coming at 10.9% as the biggest concern among voters.

33.0%	Economy/Inflation
13.4%	Roads/ Infrastructure
10.9%	Roe v Wade/ Abortion
8.3%	Government leadership

* Among the 72.8% of voters that said the economy was on the wrong track, they were asked in an open-ended question why they believe that.

44.0% specifically cited inflation and cost of goods.
9.8% cited gas prices
4.1% said that wages were too low to keep up with costs.
17.8% gave a general anti-Biden or anti-Democratic answer.
5.7% cited nobody wanting to work

Only 2.3% of these voters cited a lack of jobs.

*   92.1% of voters are concerned about inflation – 67.7% are VERY CONCERNED about inflation.   Voters were asked if they have specifically seen a big increase in costs over the past year on a list of items:

97.7%	Gas for my automobile
92.4%	Groceries like bread and milk
73.6%	Eating out at a restaurant
62.9%	Home heating costs
62.5%	A vehicle purchase
44.8%	Insurance
42.5%	A new appliance

Despite Inflation, Voters Report Not Being Economically Different

*   Voters were asked if they personally were doing better, worse or about the same economically as in the past.

28.0% say they are doing worse.
22.7% say they are doing better.
48.4% say they are doing about the same.

These numbers are statistically unchanged from December 2021.

Condition	December 2021	May 2022	Difference
Worse	24.3%	28.0%	+3.7%
Better	25.5%	22.7%	-2.8%
About the Same	48.0%	48.0%	No Difference

In December 2021, 73.5% of voters said they were economically doing the same or better as the past.   In May 2022, 70.7% of voters say they are economically doing the same or better than the past.

* But for the 28.0% that say they are doing worse, they specifically cite inflation as the reason.   76.9% of those saying they are doing worse, specifically cited increased costs as the reason.

Only 3.6% of those that say they are doing worse cite a lack of jobs or work.

54.7% Believe Inflation Will Last For Years

* 54.7% of voters believe inflation will continue for years, while 34.0% believe inflation will begin to slow down.

Only Strong Democratic voters believe inflation will begin to slow down.
