Distribution and Demographics

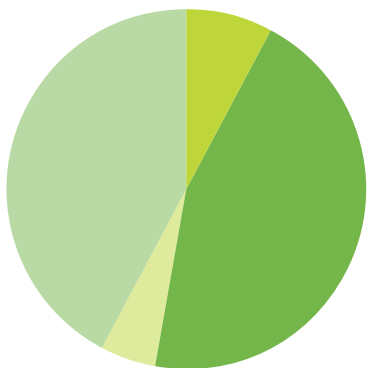

The Detroit Regional Chamber is one of the largest metropolitan chambers of commerce in the U.S. The Chamber publishes its Detroiter magazine four times a year to communicate timely, relevant business information to its members. Editorial content includes updates on public policy, economic development, and regional collaboration initiatives, as well as information on Chamber programs, events, and services. Readers will find business information and data from regional and national experts and best practices for human resources, marketing, technology, health care, and more.

The Detroiter is delivered to Chamber members, with 89% of its readers at the manager level or above. No other publication in Southeast Michigan can boast this type of business decision-maker penetration. The Detroiter has been recognized for its excellence in editorial content and design by the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE) organization. ACCE conducts an annual awards program for publications around the United States.

Where is the Detroiter distributed?

- Chamber members' businesses

Special Edition: 2023 Mackinac Policy Conference

More than 1,100 business and political leaders will gather for the state's premier public policy event of the year and the Detroit will be there as the official publication for the Conference.

The special Conference edition will serve as the must-read for Conference attendees and Chamber members back home.

The edition will be filled with articles featuring Conference speakers on issues of importance to Southeast Michigan's business community. Conference committee members, legislators and attendees will also contribute to this exciting publication.

This special edition of the Detroit will be circulated to Chamber members and have expanded distribution during the Conference to attendees at Grand Hotel and other island hotels and popular meeting spots.

A limited amount of space is available in this issue for advertising. Some placements will include access to one reservation for a room in Grand Hotel — at the expense of the advertiser.

This is a great opportunity to show your support for the Conference mission and communicate what your company is doing to improve the economy and quality of life in Southeast Michigan.

Where is the Detroit distributed?

- Chamber members' businesses
- Local, state, and federal legislators' offices
- Municipal offices and educational libraries throughout the 11-county Detroit region
- Professional office lobbies

Regular Circulation: 8,500

Increased Distribution at Mackinac Policy Conference

*The Mackinac Policy Conference Special Edition will be distributed during the Conference throughout Grand Hotel. Additional copies will be distributed by all hotels on Mackinac Island in their lobbies and guest rooms.
